American Legion Post 104 Held Birthday Dinner - Meeting

American Legion Post 104 in Appomattox observed its birthday with an annual dinner - meeting held at the Post Home on Tuesday night, March 27. The occasion commemorated the founding of the American Legion at the end of World War I.

Members and their wives or guests were guests to hear Mr. Charles A. Wilson of Martinsville, standing in photo, speak. Wilson taught DE & DO in Appomattox County in 1958-59. He is Post Commander of American Legion Post 42 in Martinsville and is currently serving as Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Chairman for the American Legion Department of Virginia.

Appomattox FBLA'ers Win Again

The Appomattox FBLA Chapter is very proud of the following members who placed in the Spring Regional Competitive events held at Longwood College on Saturday, March 31: Susan Campbell, 1st in office procedures; Cindy Roach, 1st in her job description manual; Nugene Harvey, Juanita Patterson, Debbie Harris, Teresa Lettner, and Debbie Roach, 1st in parliamentary procedure; Ralph Totty and Nugene Harvey, 2nd in free enterprise project; and Ralph Totty, 3rd in public speaking. Nugene also received the highest score on the Parliamentary Law Event.

Twenty-five of the 28 schools in the Longwood Region were represented with 378 students, 69 advisors, and 6 chaperones attending. The Appomattox Chapter was represented by 30 members, 5 advisors, and 1 chaperone. The first place winners will represent the Longwood Region at the 29th annual FBLA State Leadership Conference at The John Marshall, Richmond, Va., on April 27-29, 1979.

CLUB MEMBERS DEBBIE FRYE AND SHEILA FRANKLIN, LEFT TO RIGHT, PROVE THAT ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS DRIVE UP AND THEY'LL TAKE CARE OF THE REST. That's the way it will be when you bring out your old newspapers for the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club's paper drive that will continue this Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the Farmers National Bank, Triangle Plaza Branch. Don't forget, bring out all the old papers you want to get rid of and help this organization at the same time.
